

1901-02

London University Library

1. The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the library at the beginning of the year. It mentions the total number of books, the number of new acquisitions, and the number of books returned. It also mentions the number of books lost and the number of books damaged.

2. The second part of the report deals with the financial situation of the library. It mentions the total amount of money received during the year, the amount of money spent, and the amount of money carried over from the previous year. It also mentions the number of books purchased and the number of books sold.

3. The third part of the report deals with the work of the library during the year. It mentions the number of books lent, the number of books returned, and the number of books read. It also mentions the number of books added to the collection and the number of books removed.

4. The fourth part of the report deals with the work of the library staff during the year. It mentions the number of staff members employed, the number of staff members who have left, and the number of staff members who have been promoted. It also mentions the number of staff members who have been awarded prizes.

5. The fifth part of the report deals with the work of the library during the year. It mentions the number of books lent, the number of books returned, and the number of books read. It also mentions the number of books added to the collection and the number of books removed.

6. The sixth part of the report deals with the work of the library during the year. It mentions the number of books lent, the number of books returned, and the number of books read. It also mentions the number of books added to the collection and the number of books removed.

7. The seventh part of the report deals with the work of the library during the year. It mentions the number of books lent, the number of books returned, and the number of books read. It also mentions the number of books added to the collection and the number of books removed.

8. The eighth part of the report deals with the work of the library during the year. It mentions the number of books lent, the number of books returned, and the number of books read. It also mentions the number of books added to the collection and the number of books removed.

9. The ninth part of the report deals with the work of the library during the year. It mentions the number of books lent, the number of books returned, and the number of books read. It also mentions the number of books added to the collection and the number of books removed.

10. The tenth part of the report deals with the work of the library during the year. It mentions the number of books lent, the number of books returned, and the number of books read. It also mentions the number of books added to the collection and the number of books removed.