

Protocol.

The undersigned who have met this day in order to sign the above Preliminary Agreement have agreed upon the following:

In view of the relations existing between Denmark and Iceland, based on the Danish-Icelandic Union Act of November the 30th, 1918, it is understood as a matter of course that the stipulations of the Agreement shall not entitle Russia to claim the special benefits which have actually been granted or which may hereafter be granted by Denmark to Iceland, or by Iceland to Denmark.

The present Protocol shall have effect as long as the Preliminary Agreement above referred to remains in force.

Done in duplicate at Moscow, April 23rd, 1923.
