

Baghdad, January 13, 1960.

*H. E. Troels Munk,
Chargé d'Affaires of Denmark,
Baghdad.*

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your today's letter which reads as follows:

„During our conversations preceding the conclusion of the Trade Agreement, it was agreed that the Danish Government as well as the Iraqi Government, animated by their desire further to develop and facilitate trade relations between the two countries, consider it a mutual pledge to render their support to any endeavour which might contribute to the said objectives.

It was furthermore agreed that both Governments promise to inform the importers in their respective countries about the Trade Agreement with a view to encouraging the purchase and import of commodities from the other country.

The two Governments shall take all other steps which might lead to an expansion of trade relations between Denmark and Iraq.

During our conversations it was further agreed that it would be to the mutual benefit of both countries to encourage co-operation in the field of industry, engineering and contracting. With a view to furthering such co-operation engineers as well as industrial and contracting enterprises of one of the countries should to the widest possible extent have the opportunity to work in the other country within the limits set by the country's needs and general policy. In order to enable a fair and just competition with enterprises from third countries, nationals and companies of

*Hr. Troels Munk,
Danmarks Chargé d'Affaires a. i.
Bagdad.*

Hr Chargé d'Affaires.

Jeg har den ære at anerkende modtagelsen af Deres brev af dags dato, som har følgende ordlyd:

„Under henvisning til den i dag undertegnede handelsoverenskomst mellem Kongeriget Danmarks regering og Republikken Iraks regering har jeg den ære at bekræfte følgende:

Under vore samtaler forud for afslutningen af handelsoverenskomsten var der enighed om, at den danske regering såvel som den irakiske regering — besjælet af deres ønske om fremdeles at udvikle og lette handelsforbindelserne mellem de to lande — betragter det som en gensidig forpligtelse at yde deres støtte til enhver bestræbelse, der måtte bidrage til nævnte formål.

Der var endvidere enighed om, at begge regeringer påtager sig at give importørerne i deres respektive lande oplysning om handelsoverenskomsten med henblik på at opmuntre køb og import af varer fra det andet land.

De to regeringer skal tage alle andre skridt, der måtte føre til en udvidelse af handelsforbindelserne mellem Danmark og Irak.

Under vore samtaler var der endvidere enighed om, at det ville være til gensidig fordel for begge lande at opmuntre samarbejde på området for industri-, ingeniør- og entreprenørvirksomhed. Med henblik på at fremme sådant samarbejde skulle ingeniører såvel som industri- og entreprenørforetagender fra et af landene i videst muligt omfang have lejlighed til at arbejde i det andet land inden for de af landets behov og almindelige politik dragne grænser. For at muliggøre en rimelig og retfærdig konkurrence med foretagender fra tredielande skal
