1. Where the accused makes an admission of guilt pursuant to article 64, paragraph 8 (a), the Trial Chamber shall determine whether:
 - (a) The accused understands the nature and consequences of the admission of guilt;
 - (b) The admission is voluntarily made by the accused after sufficient consultation with defence counsel; and
 - (c) The admission of guilt is supported by the facts of the case that are contained in:

2. Where the Trial Chamber is satisfied that the matters referred to in paragraph 1 are established, it shall consider the admission of guilt, together with any additional evidence presented, as establishing all the essential facts that are required to prove the crime to which the admission of guilt relates, and may convict the accused of that crime.
3. Where the Trial Chamber is not satisfied that the matters referred to in paragraph 1 are established, it shall consider the admission of guilt as not having been made, in which case it shall order that the trial be continued under the ordinary trial procedures provided by this Statute and may remit the case to another Trial Chamber.
4. Where the Trial Chamber is of the opinion that a more complete presentation of the facts of the case is required in the interests of justice, in particular the interests of the victims, the Trial Chamber may:

3. Hvis domskammeret ikke finder, at betingelserne i stk. 1 er opfyldte, skal kammeret anse tilstælelsen som ikke afgivet og skal i så tilfælde bestemme, at retssagen fortsættes efter de almindelige regler for domsforhandling, som er fastlagt i denne statut, og kammeret kan overgive sagen til et andet domskammer.
4. Hvis domskammeret er af den opfattelse, at en mere fuldstændig fremstilling af sagens faktum er påkrævet af hensyn til retfærdighed, navnlig af hensyn til ofrene, kan domskammeret:
 - (a) anmode anklageren om at fremlægge yderligere beviser, herunder vidneudsagn, eller
